Job Opportunity: Description

We are seeking a compassionate, patient, and reliable Personal Support Caregiver to assist a young autistic adult who lives with his mother, his primary caregiver. The caregiver must be willing and able to provide support with daily living activities, including personal hygiene, dressing, exercise, meal preparation and cooking skills, household participation, and community engagement. The ideal candidate should be gentle, encouraging, and dedicated to promoting independence while respecting the individual's unique needs and preferences. Building trust, comfort, and a positive relationship is essential to success in this role. The position will begin at 9 hours per week (3 hours per day) with the opportunity to increase up to 20 hours weekly. Scheduling is flexible and can be adjusted to meet the needs of both the family and caregiver. This is a rewarding opportunity to make a meaningful impact in the life of a caring young man and provide valuable support to a loving family seeking dependable assistance.
