Job Opportunity: Description

We are looking for a dependable and compassionate female caregiver—without pets, due to the consumer's restriction—to provide full-time companionship and personal support to an energetic young man in his early adulthood who lives with his parent(s) in the Parrish area. He enjoys staying active with both home and community activities, and this rewarding position offers the opportunity to make a meaningful difference by helping him remain independent, safe, and engaged. Responsibilities include preparing Vietnamese meals, assisting with daily living activities such as meals, grooming, and personal care, as well as providing transportation to community outings like brunches, park visits, and family gatherings. Candidates must have reliable transportation, a valid driver's license, current vehicle registration, and proof of auto insurance. This role is ideal for a caring, motivated, and dependable professional who values building positive relationships and is passionate about enhancing the quality of life for others through compassion, connection, and dedicated support.
